

Rod Buchanan – Broker Services

I have been providing comprehensive insurance and investment advice continuously since 1978. Over this time I have studied and passed industry examinations including the N.Z. Diploma in Life Insurance and Chartered Life Underwriting.

Since 1999 I have specialised in advising on Commercial General Insurance, Business, Liability, Farm and Motor Vehicle. As a director of The Amicus Group my life insurance and investment clients still receive advice and service from my experienced business partners.

I am committed to providing a valuable and professional service. I will take the time to fully understand your insurance needs then work with our comprehensive range of underwriters to present you with a competitive risk solution package.

Services
